

Year 10 English Language and English Literature PPE

2023

Formby High School
English Department

English Literature: Poetry Anthology 1 hour

Friday 30th June P1 (in class)

*If you receive 25% ET you will get this to continue your response in the lesson Monday 3rd July P1

You will need to revise 10 of the poems from the Poetry Anthology- your teacher will share the list with you. For Part A you will be given one poem and a focus question. For Part B you will choose one other poem to compare with the one you were given in Part A- remember that you will not have the other anthology poems in front of you! You will need to use your exercise book and anthology to prepare.

English Language: Narrative Writing 45 mins

Wednesday 5th July P3 (in class)

*If you receive 25% ET you will get to continue your response in this lesson (1 hour in total)

You should remind yourself of the format and approach necessary to tackle this section. Use your English Language exercise book to look at the practice questions you have completed and your teacher's feedback and guidance.

Your teacher will support you in the best ways to revise/prepare and you can also access additional past papers/revision materials via the English KS4 padlet on the school website or here:

<https://padlet.com/ehughesfhs/KS4English>

Year 10 English Language and English Literature PPE

2023

Formby High School
English Department

English Literature: Poetry Anthology 1 hour

Poems to revise (10)

The Manhunt by Simon Armitage

As Imperceptibly as Grief by Emily Dickinson

A Wife in London by Thomas Hardy

Death of a Naturalist by Seamus Heaney

Hawk Roosting by Ted Hughes

To Autumn by John Keats

Afternoons by Philip Larkin

Ozymandias by Percy Bysshe Shelley

Mametz Wood by Owen Sheers

Excerpt from The Prelude by William Wordsworth